UPDATE FROM MUSIC OFFICE

Exciting Announcement: Guest Artist Tori Longdon Visiting the School of Music!

We are delighted to announce that on Monday 21 September, the School of Music will welcome international guest artist Tori Longdon for a day of special workshops!

Tori is an acclaimed choral conductor, vocal coach, and educator. She is the Principal Conductor of the Covent Garden Chorus and Associate Chorus Director of the London Philharmonic Choir. This is a fantastic opportunity for our students to learn from a leading industry professional.

Repertoire Preparation

Over the next fortnight, we will spend our music classes preparing specific repertoire. We want all students to feel confident and ready to make the most of Tori's expertise during her visit.

Workshop Schedule

Tori will be working with all music students from Years 7–11. Please note the schedule for the day:

- Period 1: Year 8/9 Boys
- Period 2: Year 8/9 Girls
- Period 3: Year 7 Students
- Period 5: Combined Session (All music students, Years 7–11)

UPDATE FROM MUSIC PARENTS' COMMITTEE

Could you spare one shift this year

The Music Parents' Committee raises funds through the kiosk at concerts and music events, with every dollar going back to support our School of Music students.

Helping is easy – there's no food preparation, and there is always an experienced volunteer on shift. We'd love to welcome some new faces!

If you'd like to get involved, please contact Joe, MPC Convenor, at cshtmpe@gmail.com. You can also join our WhatsApp community by sending Joe your phone number and your CSHS music student's year group, or join our Facebook group:
