

Closes 15th September
National Songwriting Competition 2025

School Category Prizes
as well as Individual Prizes

Free to enter and open to all school aged children

This is your final reminder that entries for the Australian Children's Music Foundation's (ACMF) National Songwriting Competition 2025 are closing very soon!

The deadline for submissions is September 15th. Don't let your students miss out on this incredible, free opportunity to express themselves through music and potentially win fantastic prizes.

We know how powerful music can be for students to find their voice and interpret their experiences, whether it's navigating challenges or simply expressing their feelings. This competition is designed to empower them to do just that, with the focus solely on the songwriting itself, not recording quality.

A Unique Opportunity for Your School Community

As well as encouraging individual students have you considered supporting and involving your students in this competition as a school activity? Whether integrated into class lessons, supported through school bands, or by simply encouraging peer collaboration, this is a fantastic way to foster creativity and musical expression across your school community.

Remember the amazing prizes on offer, both for individuals AND your school:

- School Category Prizes (for winning Primary & High School entries):
 - Winning High School: An APRA AMCOS SongMakers workshop (valued at $10,000!) delivered by world-class Australian songwriters and producers, plus a masterclass with AMPAL.
 - Winning Primary School: $500 towards instruments or a music experience.
- Individual Student Prizes: Awards for various year groups and overall competition winners.

This is a brilliant chance to celebrate creativity within your school and provide valuable recognition and resources.

Act fast – the deadline of September 15th is just around the corner!. Enter here.

You can still download and display the poster around your school, or share it through your social channels/school newsletter for a last-minute push.
